2. Letter No. A/1304/2017/CAS/DVPM dated. 25.10.2019.
3. Resolution of the 100th meeting of the Executive Committee of IHRD held on 14.11.2019.

ORDER

The Technology and Management Corridor (TMC) of IHRD, established for conducting various add on courses and diploma courses, started functioning in 2014, in the building provided by Neyyattinkara Municipality based on a lease deed agreement.

The Principal College of Applied Science, Dhanuvachapuram who is in charge of the centre has informed that TMC Neyyattinkara is not functioning since 25.03.2018 due to non-availability of students. The main reason is the lack of transportation facilities as the centre is situated in a remote area and hence starting of new courses in the centre is not feasible Neyyattinkara Municipality also issued notice to vacate the building.

The matter was placed before the 100th meeting of the Executive Committee of IHRD held on 14.11.2019. The committee resolved to wind up the centre and to transfer its assets to the College of Applied Science, Dhanuvachapuram.

In the above circumstances, sanction is accorded to wind up the Technology and Management Corridor (TMC) Neyyattinkara with immediate effect. The assets and institutional properties of the centre may be transferred and attached with College of Applied Science, Dhanuvachapuram under the control of the Principal, College of Applied Science, Dhanuvachapuram. The Principal will take over the institutional properties and forward the acknowledgement of the records, vouchers and other assets to this office. A list of such records, vouchers, other assets like furniture, machinery and equipments, computer and accessories etc. received should be kept in College of Applied Science, Dhanuvachapuram for future reference.
